

KUCI 88.9 FM WINTER 2007 MUSIC LISTENING GUIDE

THE DECEMBERISTS The Crane Wife (Capitol) Even though they lost the shred-off against Stephen Colbert, these dudes will bring the thunder. By thunder, of course, I mean literate prog-pop about eras of history when tuberculosis was a lot more common.

RADIO CITIZEN Berlin Serengeti (Ubiquity) A jazzy funky party platter that draws inspiration from a diverse range of musical ingredients making for a über-enjoyable downtempo release.

TOM WAITS Orphans, Brawlers, Bawlers, and Bastards (Anti) Three-disc drunken junkyard odds-and-sods collection from one of the greatest musicians of all time. Fact: this guy would win in a bar fight against God.

THE BLOOD BROTHERS Young Machetes (V2): More spazz rock songs about sex and death. It's all very Freudian, and so hip my white belt is like, "Dude, this is hip!" I do, too, have a talking white belt.

TV ON THE RADIO Return to Cookie Mountain (4AD/Interscope) A dense chunk of alternative rock that reinvigorates the jaded listener. Personal, political, fast, slow, noisy and ethereal, this sonic missile from Brooklyn hits the bull's eye.

LES AMIS CREOLE Les Amis Creole (Arhoolie) Like no one else anywhere else, Cedric Watson and company rock the old house party music of Louisiana on their debut release.

FUTURE PIGEON Echodelic Sounds Of (Record Collection Music) 11 denizens of Echo Park come together and create an essential collection of roots rock reggae riddims that stick in your head in a good way.

EASY ALLSTARS Radiodread (Easy Star Records) A reggae rendition of "OK Computer" that does justice to Radiohead's masterpiece. Guest appearances by Horace Andy, Toots, Frankie Paul, Sugar Minnot and Israel Vibration are the icing on the cake of this gem.

THE AGGROLITES S/T (Hellcat) It ain't ska and it ain't punk, but it does channel the energy of 1969 Studio One and 1977 London in a fine style. These 4 L.A. youths put a 2006 stamp on early reggae with a touch of soul and funk mixed in. The end result is a foot stompin' good time.

BONSOIR CATIN Blues a Catin (Bridgetown Records) The entire lineup of this all-woman Cajun band including Christine Balfa shines magnificently.

IGNITE Our Darkest Days (Abacus) These OC hardcore veterans put out their best effort with this release. From amazing vocals to the snappy rhythm section, this composition rocks from start to finish, taking the genre to a whole new level.

BONOBO Days to Come (Ninja Tune) On his third and arguably most evolved full length, Simon Green (a.k.a. Bonobo) has delivered a moody, uplifting, organically produced album that you could dance, study, cry or love to. Also along for the ride are the smoky, soulful vocals of Bajka on several tunes and a cut with labelmate Fink on another for a well-rounded record.

THE BLOW Paper Television (K) Heart-warming electro-pop from the Pacific Northwest. We defy you not to smile and shake your butt to this. If you don't, you're a robot. An EVIL robot.

JOANNA NEWSOM Ys (Drag City) Ms. Newsom leaves her alternate universe of elf adventure to play epic harp-centric songs — fifteen-minute masterpieces with subtle nuggets of glorious folk genius. Best listened to in a tree.

MIRAH Jayride: Remixes (K) Two-disc myriad set of remixes of one of the most beautiful voices in indie music today. Mirah, why won't you get with me? Oh yeah, because you're gay and I'm a dude.

A HAWK AND A HACKSAW The Way The Wind Blows (Leaf) Balkan gypsy-folk from the drummer of Neutral Milk Hotel. Is your life missing serious amounts of accordion? These kids have the cure.
